Dear Freedom of Information Officer:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and the implementing regulations of the Department of State (State), 22 C.F.R. Part 171, American Oversight makes the following request for records.

In February 2019, White House adviser Jared Kushner visited the Middle East to promote a peace plan, visiting six Middle Eastern countries. He reportedly traveled with Jason Greenblatt, the President's Middle East Envoy, and Brian Hook, Special Representative for Iran from the State Department.<sup>1</sup> Few details have been disclosed regarding the trip, and there are reports that State Department officials were sidelined during the planning of the trip, especially during the portion in Saudi Arabia.

American Oversight seeks records to shed light on the nature of State's involvement in the planning for a delegation critical to U.S. foreign policy interests.

Requested Records

American Oversight requests that State produce the following records within twenty business days:

- 1) All records reflecting communications (including emails, WhatsApp messages<sup>2</sup> and other messages on electronic messaging applications, calendar entries/invitations, or any

- 2) All records reflecting communications (including emails, WhatsApp messages and other messages on electronic messaging applications, calendar entries/invitations, or any other records reflecting communications) sent or received by State Department officials providing readouts or summaries of any aspect of the U.S. delegation’s trip to the Middle East on or about February 25-28, 2019.
- 3) All records reflecting communications (including emails, WhatsApp messages and other messages on electronic messaging applications, handwritten notes, calendar entries/invitations, or any other records reflecting communications) maintained by any State Department official who attended meetings during the U.S. delegation to the Middle East on or about February 25-28, 2019, regarding those meetings.
- 4) All records reflecting communications (including emails, WhatsApp messages and other messages on electronic messaging applications, calendar entries/invitations, or any other records reflecting communications) sent or received by Brian Hook regarding the U.S. delegation to the Middle East on or about February 25-28, 2019.

American Oversight believes State Department is best positioned to determine where responsive records may reside. American Oversight requests that the search include, at a minimum, the following offices:

- i. The Office of the Secretary, including Secretary Pompeo, Chiefs or Deputy Chiefs of Staff, the Executive Secretary, and anyone else acting on behalf of the Secretary such as an executive or special assistant;
- ii. The Office of the Deputy Secretary, including Deputy Secretary Sullivan, Chiefs or Deputy Chiefs of Staff, and anyone else acting on behalf of the Deputy Secretary such as an executive or special assistant;
- iii. The Office of the Under Secretary for Political Affairs, including Under Secretary David Hale, Chiefs or Deputy Chiefs of Staff, and anyone else acting on behalf of the Under Secretary such as an executive or special assistant;
- iv. The Office of Special Representative Brian Hook, including Special Representative Hook, Chiefs or Deputy Chiefs of Staff, and anyone else acting on behalf of the Special Representative such as an executive or special assistant;

Consequently, a search reasonably calculated to uncover all relevant communications must include a search of electronic messages on messaging applications.

- v. The immediate front office of the Bureau of Diplomatic Security, including the Director, Deputy Director, Chiefs or Deputy Chiefs of Staff, and anyone else who was involved in the planning or execution of the trip to the Middle East on or about February 25-28, 2019;
- vi. The Bureau of Near Eastern Affairs, including Acting Assistant Secretary for Near Eastern Affairs David Satterfield, Acting Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Near Eastern Affairs Joan Polaschik, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Arabian Peninsula Affairs Timothy Lenderking; and
- vii. The Chiefs of Mission (COM), Deputy Chiefs of Mission (DCM), Chiefs or Deputy Chiefs of Staff, anyone serving in these roles in an acting capacity, and anyone else acting on behalf of the COM or DCM, such as an executive or special assistant, at the following six Embassies:
  - a. U.S. Embassy Riyadh
  - b. U.S. Embassy Muscat
  - c. U.S. Embassy Manama
  - d. U.S. Embassy Doha
  - e. U.S. Embassy Abu Dhabi
  - f. U.S. Embassy Ankara

Please provide all responsive records from January 1, 2019, through the date the search is conducted.

In addition to the records requested above, American Oversight also requests records describing the processing of this request, including records sufficient to identify search terms used and locations and custodians searched and any tracking sheets used to track the processing of this request. If State uses FOIA questionnaires or certifications completed by individual custodians or components to determine whether they possess responsive materials or to describe how they conducted searches, we also request any such records prepared in connection with the processing of this request.

American Oversight seeks all responsive records regardless of format, medium, or physical characteristics. In conducting your search, please understand the terms “record,” “document,” and “information” in their broadest sense, to include any written, typed, recorded, graphic, printed, or audio material of any kind. We seek records of any kind, including electronic records, audiotapes, videotapes, and photographs, as well as letters, emails, facsimiles, telephone messages, voice mail messages and transcripts, notes, or minutes of any meetings, telephone conversations or discussions. Our request includes any attachments to these records. No category of material should be omitted from search, collection, and production.

Please search all records regarding agency business. You may not exclude searches of files or emails in the personal custody of your officials, such as personal email accounts. Records of official business conducted using unofficial systems or stored outside of official files are subject to the Federal Records Act and FOIA.<sup>3</sup> It is not adequate to rely on policies and procedures that require officials to move such information to official systems within a certain period of time; American Oversight has a right to records contained in those files even if material has not yet been moved to official systems or if officials have, through negligence or willfulness, failed to meet their obligations.<sup>4</sup>

In addition, please note that in conducting a “reasonable search” as required by law, you must employ the most up-to-date technologies and tools available, in addition to searches by individual custodians likely to have responsive information. Recent technology may have rendered State’s prior FOIA practices unreasonable. In light of the government-wide requirements to manage information electronically by the end of 2016, it is no longer reasonable to rely exclusively on custodian-driven searches.<sup>5</sup> Furthermore, agencies that have adopted the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) Capstone program, or similar policies, now maintain emails in a form that is reasonably likely to be more complete than individual custodians’ files. For example, a custodian may have deleted a responsive email from his or her email program, but State’s archiving tools would capture that email under Capstone. Accordingly, American Oversight insists that State use the most up-to-date technologies to search for responsive information and take steps to ensure that the most complete repositories of information are searched. American Oversight is available to work with you to craft appropriate search terms. However, custodian searches are still required; agencies may not have direct access to files stored in .PST files, outside of network drives, in paper format, or in personal email accounts.

Under the FOIA Improvement Act of 2016, agencies must adopt a presumption of disclosure, withholding information “only if . . . disclosure would harm an interest protected by an exemption” or “disclosure is prohibited by law.”<sup>6</sup> If it is your position that any portion of the requested records is exempt from disclosure, American Oversight requests that you provide an index of those documents as required under Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973), cert. denied, 415 U.S. 977 (1974). As you are aware, a Vaughn index must describe each document claimed as exempt with sufficient specificity “to permit a reasoned judgment as to whether the material is actually exempt under FOIA.”<sup>7</sup> Moreover, the Vaughn index “must describe each document or portion thereof withheld, and for each withholding it must discuss the consequences of disclosing the sought-after information.”<sup>8</sup> Further, “the withholding agency must supply ‘a relatively detailed justification, specifically identifying the reasons why a particular exemption is relevant and correlating those claims with the particular part of a withheld document to which they apply.’”<sup>9</sup>

In the event some portions of the requested records are properly exempt from disclosure, please disclose any reasonably segregable non-exempt portions of the requested records. If it is your position that a document contains non-exempt segments, but that those non-exempt segments are so dispersed throughout the document as to make segregation impossible, please state what portion of the document is non-exempt, and how the material is dispersed throughout the document.<sup>10</sup> Claims of nonsegregability must be made with the same degree of detail as required for claims of exemptions in a Vaughn index. If a request is denied in whole, please state specifically that it is not reasonable to segregate portions of the record for release.

You should institute a preservation hold on information responsive to this request. American Oversight intends to pursue all legal avenues to enforce its right of access under FOIA, including litigation if necessary. Accordingly, State is on notice that litigation is reasonably foreseeable.

To ensure that this request is properly construed, that searches are conducted in an adequate but efficient manner, and that extraneous costs are not incurred, American Oversight welcomes an opportunity to discuss its request with you before you undertake your search or incur search or duplication costs. By working together at the outset, American Oversight and State can decrease the likelihood of costly and time-consuming litigation in the future.

Where possible, please provide responsive material in electronic format by email or in PDF or TIF format on a USB drive. Please send any responsive material being sent by mail to American Oversight, 1030 15th Street NW, Suite B255, Washington, DC 20005. If it will accelerate release of responsive records to American Oversight, please also provide responsive material on a rolling basis.

Fee Waiver Request

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) and 22 C.F.R. § 171.16(a), American Oversight requests a waiver of fees associated with processing this request for records. First, the subject of this request concerns the operations of the federal government, and the disclosures will likely contribute to a better understanding of relevant government procedures by the general public in a significant way.<sup>11</sup> Second, the request is primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes.<sup>12</sup>

Under the public interest requirement, FOIA requesters must satisfy four factors.<sup>13</sup> American Oversight has met these four factors for the reasons set forth below. The subject matter of the requested records specifically relates to the operations or activities of the government, as it directly concerns the use of U.S. government resources in supporting embassies in countries worldwide and relates to important foreign policy decisions. As the Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee has noted, “[N]o official visit to the Middle East by a senior White House aide would presumably bear meaningfully on the conduct of U.S. foreign policy in that region.”<sup>14</sup> The subject of this request is a matter of public interest, and the public’s understanding of the government’s activities and use of resources would be enhanced through American Oversight’s analysis and publication of these records.

Increasing the likelihood that disclosure of these records will contribute significantly to public understanding, American Oversight’s objective is to reveal to the public at large any information it receives related to this FOIA request, and little information is currently available regarding the subject matter of this request. American Oversight has the capacity to disseminate this information as it posts all records to its public websites and publishes analyses of its records. In the past, the organization has successfully informed the public of specific government activities and operations. As an example, American Oversight obtained Education Secretary DeVos’s calendar entries, which revealed Secretary DeVos’s frequent absences from office and the influence of charter schools and for-profit colleges on the Education Department.<sup>15</sup> The New York Times and CNN relied on American Oversight’s analyses to report on Secretary DeVos’s priorities within the Department of Education.<sup>16</sup>

American Oversight's request is also primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes.<sup>17</sup> As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, American Oversight does not have a commercial purpose and the release of the information requested is not in American Oversight's financial interest. American Oversight's mission is to promote transparency in government, to educate the public about government activities, and to ensure the accountability of government officials. American Oversight uses the information gathered, and its analysis of it, to educate the public through reports, press releases, or other media. American Oversight also makes materials it gathers available on our public website and promotes their availability on social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter.<sup>18</sup> American Oversight has demonstrated its commitment to the public disclosure of documents and creation of editorial content. For example, after receiving records regarding an ethics waiver received by a senior DOJ attorney, American Oversight promptly posted the records to its website<sup>19</sup> and published an analysis of what the records reflected about DOJ's process for ethics waivers.<sup>20</sup> As an additional example, American Oversight has a project called "Audit the Wall," where the organization is gathering and analyzing information and commenting on public releases of information related to the administration's proposed construction of a barrier along the U.S.-Mexico border.<sup>21</sup>

Accordingly, American Oversight qualifies for a fee waiver.

Conclusion

We share a common mission to promote transparency in government. American Oversight looks forward to working with State on this request.
