Re: Expedited Freedom of Information Act Request

Dear FOIA Officer(s):

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and the implementing regulations of your agency American Oversight makes the following request for records.¹

The outbreak of the novel coronavirus, SARS-CoV-2, and the disease it causes, COVID-19, has been declared a public health emergency at both the national and international levels.² Since late 2019, the virus has spread to dozens of countries, sickened millions of people, and resulted in more than 200,000 deaths.³ This is a rapidly evolving situation that is demanding coordinated attention and action across the federal government, and cooperation with state and local officials. Across the country, public officials, healthcare leaders, and first responders have reported shortages of urgently needed medical supplies, personal protective equipment (PPE), and sanitation materials.⁴ The Federal Emergency ¹ In this request, American Oversight seeks records likely maintained by FEMA. Because it is our understanding that the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is processing all coronavirus-related FOIA requests on FEMA's behalf, we are submitting this request to DHS in addition to FEMA. However, we are sending to FEMA for awareness and because, in the event that FEMA regains responsibility for processing such requests, American Oversight expects that this request would then be referred to FEMA for any outstanding processing.

Management Agency (FEMA)'s supply chain task force, reportedly under the leadership of Rear Adm. John Polowczyk,⁵ has assumed a central role in coordinating government-wide efforts to obtain and distribute desperately needed supplies and emergency aid.⁶

American Oversight seeks records with the potential to shed light on Rear Adm. Polowczyk's role in leading this aspect of the federal government's response to this public health crisis.

Requested Records

American Oversight requests that your agency produce the following records within twenty business days:

1. All email communications (including emails, complete email chains, email attachments, calendar invitations, and calendar invitation attachments) between (a) Rear Adm. John Polowczyk, and (b) the Executive Office of the President (EOP) officials listed below:

- x. Director of the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy Kelvin Droegmeier
- xi. White House Trade Adviser Peter Navarro
- xii. White House Senior Adviser Jared Kushner

Please provide all responsive records from February 1, 2020, through the date of the search.

- 2. All text messages or messages sent on messaging platforms (such as WhatsApp, Slack, GChat, Google Hangouts, Lync, Skype, or Jabber) between (a) Rear Adm. John Polowczyk, and (b) White House advisor Jared Kushner, including on both personal and official messaging accounts and devices.

Please provide all responsive records from February 01, 2020, through the date of the search.

Fee Waiver Request

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) and your agency's regulations, American Oversight requests a waiver of fees associated with processing this request for records. The subject of this request concerns the operations of the federal government, and the disclosures will likely contribute to a better understanding of relevant government procedures by the general public in a significant way. Moreover, the request is primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes.

American Oversight requests a waiver of fees because disclosure of the requested information is "in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of operations or activities of the government."⁷ The public has a significant interest in the federal government's reaction to the national shortage of equipment urgently needed to respond to the pandemic.⁸ Records with the potential to shed light on this matter would contribute significantly to public understanding of operations of the federal government, including whether improper political interference from the White House has affected management of the nation's supply chain.⁹ American Oversight is committed to transparency and makes the responses agencies provide to FOIA requests publicly available, and the public's understanding of the government's activities would be enhanced through American Oversight's analysis and publication of these records.

This request is primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes.¹⁰ As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, American Oversight does not have a commercial purpose and the release of the information requested is not in American Oversight's financial interest. American Oversight's mission is to promote transparency in government, to educate the public about government activities, and to ensure the accountability of government officials. American Oversight uses the information gathered, and its analysis of it, to educate the public through reports, press releases, or other media. American Oversight also makes materials it gathers available on its public website and promotes their availability on social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter.¹¹

American Oversight has also demonstrated its commitment to the public disclosure of documents and creation of editorial content through numerous substantive analyses posted to its website.¹² Examples reflecting this commitment to the public disclosure of documents and the creation of editorial content include the posting of records related to an ethics waiver received by a senior Department of Justice attorney and an analysis of what those records demonstrated regarding the Department's process for issuing such waivers;¹³ posting records received as part of American Oversight's "Audit the Wall"

Accordingly, American Oversight qualifies for a fee waiver.

Application for Expedited Processing

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(1) and your agency's regulations, 6 C.F.R. § 5.5(e), American Oversight requests that your agency expedite the processing of this request.

I certify to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief that the information requested is urgently needed in order to inform the public concerning actual or alleged government activity, and American Oversight is primarily engaged in disseminating the information it receives from public records requests to the public.¹⁸

Recent reporting demonstrates that there is clearly an urgent need to inform the public regarding the matters that are the subject of American Oversight's FOIA request: how the federal government is responding to the nation's need for supplies, including elucidating whether improper White House interference is pushing supplies to political allies, rather than the communities hardest hit by the pandemic.¹⁹

First, American Oversight has requested records with the potential to shed light on the steps the administration has taken to respond to the novel coronavirus outbreak, which has resulted in a major public health emergency. Because the virus has spread rapidly and has already killed tens of thousands of people in the United States,²⁰ there is plainly an urgent need to inform the public about how federal agencies are responding to the virus. While there is widespread reporting on the equipment shortages faced by healthcare providers, first responders, and essential workers,²¹ there remains considerable confusion—even amongst state officials, members of congress, and healthcare leaders—about how to obtain needed supplies.²² Contributing to that confusion are reports that personally calling the White House can help officials obtain equipment more quickly.²³ The extraordinary media interest on coronavirus demonstrates that the public urgently needs information about the federal government’s efforts and policies concerning the subject matter of this request.²⁴

Second, factual developments have demonstrated a series of government failures to appropriately handle decisions regarding the virus, including obscure federal policies leading to confusion amongst governors and hospitals over how to obtain needed materials²⁵ and an effort by government officials to minimize press coverage and reduce public information²⁶ about the risks associated with the virus. These reports are particularly alarming given simultaneous reporting on alleged political pressure dictating which locales receive supplies.²⁷

Moreover, I certify to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief that there is an urgent need to inform the public about decision-making regarding coronavirus. American Oversight's request seeks information that can shed light on the federal government's policies and practices of managing the nation's supply chain of equipment needed to respond to the coronavirus. State government officials and healthcare providers urgently need information contained in the requested records to understand how to obtain equipment, especially in light of the reporting that direct calls to the White House might be the most effective means.²⁸ Further, the general public needs more information about the extent of confusion or potential mismanagement of the supply-chain crisis to personally respond to the pandemic and to demand accountability of their representatives.²⁹

I further certify that American Oversight is primarily engaged in disseminating information to the public. American Oversight's mission is to promote transparency in government, to educate the public about government activities, and to ensure the accountability of government officials. Similar to other organizations that have been found to satisfy the criteria necessary to qualify for expedition,³⁰ American Oversight "gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses its editorial skills to turn the raw material into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience."³¹ American Oversight uses the information gathered, and its analysis of it, to educate the public through reports, press releases, and other media. American Oversight also makes materials it gathers available on its public website and promotes their availability on social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter.³² As discussed previously, American Oversight has demonstrated its commitment to the public disclosure of documents and creation of editorial content.³³

Accordingly, American Oversight's request satisfies the criteria for expedition.

For example, a custodian may have deleted a responsive email from his or her email program, but your agency's archiving tools may capture that email under Capstone. At the same time, custodian searches are still necessary; agencies may not have direct access to files stored in .PST files, outside of network drives, in paper format, or in personal email accounts.

- In the event some portions of the requested records are properly exempt from disclosure, please disclose any reasonably segregable non-exempt portions of the requested records. If a request is denied in whole, please state specifically why it is not reasonable to segregate portions of the record for release.
- Please take appropriate steps to ensure that records responsive to this request are not deleted by the agency before the completion of processing for this request. If records potentially responsive to this request are likely to be located on systems where they are subject to potential deletion, including on a scheduled basis, please take steps to prevent that deletion, including, as appropriate, by instituting a litigation hold on those records.

Conclusion

If you have any questions regarding how to construe this request for records or believe that further discussions regarding search and processing would facilitate a more efficient production of records of interest to American Oversight, please do not hesitate to contact American Oversight to discuss this request. American Oversight welcomes an opportunity to discuss its request with you before you undertake your search or incur search or duplication costs. By working together at the outset, American Oversight and your agency can decrease the likelihood of costly and time-consuming litigation in the future.

Where possible, please provide responsive material in an electronic format by email. Alternatively, please provide responsive material in native format or in PDF format on a USB drive. Please send any responsive material being sent by mail to American Oversight, 1030 15th Street NW, Suite B255, Washington, DC 20005. If it will accelerate release of responsive records to American Oversight, please also provide responsive material on a rolling basis.

We share a common mission to promote transparency in government. American Oversight looks forward to working with your agency on this request. If you do not understand any part of this request, please contact Megan Field at foia@americanoversight.org or
