Fee Waiver Request

In accordance with Md. Code Ann., Gen. Prov. § 4-206(e), American Oversight requests a waiver of fees associated with processing this request for records. A fee waiver is in the public interest because disclosure of the requested records will likely contribute to a better understanding of relevant government procedures by the general public in a significant way. Because American Oversight is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit dedicated to government transparency, and the request is primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes, a fee waiver will serve the public interest by furthering American Oversight's nonprofit mission to inform and educate the public through the release of public records.

A waiver of fees is “in the public interest,”² because disclosure of the requested records will inform the public concerning government activities and operations of interest. The public has a significant interest in communications that Sheriff Lewis may be having with the Claremont Institute and related groups, given his prior affiliation as a Claremont Fellow. Records with the potential to shed light on this matter would contribute significantly to public understanding of operations of the government, including, whether and to what extent Sheriff Lewis continues to communicate with individuals from the Claremont Institute. American Oversight is committed to transparency and makes the responses agencies provide to public records requests publicly available, and the public's understanding of the government's activities would be enhanced through American Oversight's analysis and publication of these records.

This request is primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, American Oversight does not have a commercial purpose and the release of the information requested is not in American Oversight's financial interest. American Oversight's mission is to promote transparency in government, to educate the public about government activities, and to ensure the accountability of government officials. American Oversight uses the information gathered, and its analysis of it, to educate the public through reports, press releases, or other media. American Oversight also makes materials it gathers available on its public website and promotes their availability on social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter.³

American Oversight has also demonstrated its commitment to the public disclosure of documents and creation of editorial content through regular substantive analyses posted to its website.⁴ Examples reflecting this commitment to the public disclosure of documents and the creation of editorial content include the posting of records and analysis related to the organization's investigations into misconduct and corruption in state governments;⁵ posting records and analysis of federal and state governments' responses to the Coronavirus pandemic;⁶ posting records received as part of American Oversight's "Audit the Wall" project to gather and analyze information related to the Trump administration's proposed construction of a barrier along the U.S.-Mexico border, and analyses of what those records reveal;⁷ and the posting of records related to an ethics waiver received by a senior Department of Justice attorney and an analysis of what those records demonstrated regarding the Department's process for issuing such waivers.⁸

Accordingly, American Oversight qualifies for a fee waiver.

If records potentially responsive to this request are likely to be located on systems where they are subject to potential deletion, including on a scheduled basis, please take steps to prevent that deletion, including, as appropriate, by instituting a litigation hold on those records.
